

Browns was first established in Brighton in 1973.

We have an interesting and eclectic history spanning over 40 years. Our buildings are characterful and create a genuine social buzz, giving you an experience that goes beyond food and drink.

Our spacious bars give you the opportunity to use us in any way that suits you; pop in for a cocktail after work, a treat in your day or a Champagne celebration with friends and family. Inspired by our English heritage, Browns brings you classic dishes with a modern twist, lovingly prepared in elegant surroundings and served by our team who are passionate about helping you to create lasting memories.

Whatever your reason for visiting us, we promise we'll make your visit exceptional.
